

I'm writing to
protest Sinclair's Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations into airing a
corporate-funded
smear campaign
against John Kerry.
One man, through his
ownership of several media outlets, is attempting to change
the course of an election, a real
perversion of the spirit of Democracy
and a free press.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
